Output Screen - Summary Report

The summary report provides a snapshot of the financial activity and position of an account at the end of each month. The top section of the report provides the Funds Center and/or Fund number and name, as well as the budget version, month and year that the report was run for.
Item Description

Revenues

All transactions processed for any revenue commitment item will be viewed in this section. Revenue-S is the summary or top level of all the revenue commitment items. For the revenue section, different commitment items will be shown, depending on what general ledger accounts was used when the budget or actual transaction was processed.

Budget (version 0) for operating accounts (departmental funds centers) are typically placed at the summary level, for both revenue and expense. Budget for fund accounts can be placed in lower level commitment items, depending on the source of the revenue.

Total Revenue

The Total Revenue row provides a total of all the revenue items for the month.

Expenses

All transactions processed for any expense commitment item will be viewed in this section. Expense-S is the summary or top level of all the expense commitment items. Spending budget is always placed at the expense-S level for more efficient processing for both funds centers and funds. If there is any budget or transactions for the EXP-UTFA commitment item, it will appear in this section, as a separate line item.

Total Expense

The Total Expenses row provides a total of all the expense items for the month.

Net Total

For Funds Centers: The net total row provides the difference between the Total Revenue and the Total Expense rows for each column.

For Funds: N/A

Opening Budget (including carry-forward)

For Funds Centers: Opening budget reflects the original budget plus any carry forward budget transactions from prior year.

For Funds: Opening budget reflects the Funds Available from the previous year.
Statement of Accounts - Funds Center and Non-Research

Current Budget
For Funds Centers: The current budget reflects the opening budget plus or minus any budget supplements, return or transfers processed.
For Funds: The current budget reflects the amount posted in to FIS during the conversion from the legacy system to SAP in fiscal year 1996 plus or minus any budget supplements, return or transfers processed.

Changes in Budget
A difference in the budget from previous to current month is reported here. This is calculated in the following way: Changes in Budget = Current Budget - previous month "current budget".
Note: Changes in budget for operating Funds Centers for the first period of a fiscal year (May) is the sum of the carryforward, supplements, returns, and transfers.

Current Actuals
The current actuals reflects the transactions processed for the month, both revenue and expense.

Outstanding Commitments
Outstanding commitments reflects any outstanding purchase orders, purchase requisitions, payroll reserves or manual reserves at the end of the month.

YTD Actuals
The year to date actuals provides a running total of all the transactions processed for the fiscal year.

YTD Actuals & Commitments
The year to date actuals and commitments combines the YTD actuals and the outstanding commitments.

Funds Available
The funds available reflects the difference between the budget values and the actuals and commitments. The money available to be spent from this account is the value at the "Total Expense" row for this column.

<tr>
<td>Original Budget</td>
<td>For Funds Centers: The original budget column reflects the value of the money from central planning and budget at the start of the fiscal year. For Funds: The original budget is the amount posted to FIS during the conversion process in fiscal year 1996.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CFWD Budget</td>
<td>The carry forward budget reflects any amounts that were remaining in the account at the end of the previous fiscal year. If the account was overdrawn at the end of the previous fiscal year, this amount will be negative in the Expense-S commitment item, and will therefore reduce the opening budget for the year. As all funds use an &quot;overall&quot; view, there is no carry forward of budget from year to year.</td>

<tr>
<td>Opening Budget</td>
<td>This value is the sum of the original budget and the carry forward values, and will remain static throughout the year.                          For Funds centers: It provides a reference point to the budget that was received at the start of the fiscal year. For Funds: Equals the amount posted to FIS during the conversion process in fiscal year 1996 (same as original budget, since the carry forward budget is not applicable to funds).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Supplement Budget</td>
<td>Supplements to the budget are amounts received throughout the year, or life of the fund, that increase the value of the budget in a funds center or fund.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Return Budget</td>
<td>Returns to the budget are amounts removed throughout the year, or life of the fund, that decrease the value of the budget in a funds center or fund.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Budget transfers reflect changes in budget that move money from one account to another. Transfers into an account increase the value, and transfers out of an account decrease the value.

The amount in this column reflects the amount of budget available in the account.

For Funds Centers: The current budget reflects the opening budget plus or minus any budget supplements, return or transfers processed.
For Funds: The current budget reflects the amount posted in to FIS during the conversion from the legacy system to SAP in fiscal year 1996 plus or minus any budget supplements, return or transfers processed.

For more information about a particular budget transaction, such as who processed it and any text, please use a Budget Line Item report.
